FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TEXAS SCENIC COMPANY TO COMPLETE ACQUISITION OF POOK DIEMONT & OHL and ACOUSTACORP

Combined resources to streamline services and provide quality equipment to broader client base.

San Antonio, TX:

Texas Scenic Company (TSC) announced today that it is proud to welcome Bronx-based stage equipment contractor Pook Diemont & Ohl, Inc (PDO) and variable acoustic banner manufacturer acouStaCorp LLC to its family of brands effective November 1, 2016.

Texas Scenic Company's COO Steve Surratt commented, "This merger will produce the strongest nationwide theatrical systems integrator. By combining cross-country project expertise with a centrally located manufacturing source we will expand our addressable market. Our companies' core values align incredibly well." Founding PDO Partner Ted Ohl said, "Combining our companies is a 'win-win' for our customers and employees. We are excited to begin the transition of combining our teams." TSC President Richard Mecke remarked, "Adding PDO and acouStaCorp to the TSC family is a milestone moment for our companies and our industry."

Together the new firm will have established offices in San Antonio, Washington DC, Atlanta, Boston and New York City; forecasting expansion to Los Angeles. Transition teams have begun to integrate both companies' SOPs while onboarding employees, vendors and industry partners.
